Vice President for Mobilization

Role at TMS Global

As the vice president of mobilization, Sarah oversees TMS Global's strategic efforts in mobilizing churches as well as recruiting, coaching, and screening missionary candidates. She has the privilege of walking alongside individuals and churches as they explore their sense of calling to join Jesus in His mission.

Background

After a brief stint working as a chemist for Merck Pharmaceuticals, Sarah moved to Kentucky and began working as a campus minister at the Wesley Foundation at the University of Kentucky. After nine years at the Wesley Foundation, Sarah joined the TMS Global staff in a support role for missionaries who were serving and preparing to serve. She assumed the role of director of mobilization and candidacy in 2017, and the role of senior director of mobilization in 2019. In all of her roles, it has been her greatest joy to see people discover who they are in Christ, and how God desires for them to engage with the world.

Personal

Bert and Sarah met and married in South Georgia and later moved to Kentucky where Sarah pursued her Master of Divinity at Asbury Theological Seminary. Ten years and three kids later, Sarah finally earned her degree and their family moved back to Georgia. In her spare time, Sarah loves to read, do puzzles, hike, and spend time with the people she loves.

Education

B.S. in Chemistry, Georgia Southwestern State University, Americus, Georgia

M. Div., Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky

Expertise

Sarah's expertise is in stories and puzzles. She has the ability to see the big picture and how each piece fits, revealing a narrative of God's redemption in the lives of real people. In studying the individual pieces, Sarah has become fluent in Myers-Briggs personality profiles.
